

This legislation serves big business and not the American public. I cannot name one person I know that would like to see more standardized, corporate-owned media but most, like me, believe that local media better serves individual's needs. Please do not give in to the corporate corruption that American's believe is increasingly running our country. Make a decision that would benefit real people--vote down these changes.

Sincerely,

Mary Alice Lassiter